

The Value of Life Insurance

A SHORT VIDEO
CLIP CONTEST

An Initiative By:
Asia Pacific Financial Services Association

The Idea

Life is full of uncertainty and no one knows for sure if tomorrow will arrive. Disasters and catastrophes bring much sufferings and sorrows to unprepared families.

Life insurance, dubbed as one of the greatest inventions in the world, has never failed to deliver in the hours of need; providing shelter for the widow, food for the family and children's continuous education in times of the pre-matured death of the breadwinner.

Human life is indeed fragile; some did not wake up in the morning and left this beautiful world; many departed hurriedly without even saying goodbye to their loved ones. Death is unavoidable, but life insurance is a powerful product which is specifically designed to prevent the deceased's income from dying with him.

To further promote and popularise this noble product in reaching out to the uninsured or under-insured, APFinSA has taken this bold initiative, through a series of short video clips that carry the important message of life insurance coverage, missioned to raise the penetration rate in Asia Pacific countries.

Our Objectives

1. To help raise the insured population in Asia Pacific Countries.
2. To present simplified life insurance concepts via multimedia.
3. To create awareness on the urgency to transfer risks.
4. To awaken the viewers on the responsibilities of keeping families together through life insurance protection planning.
